Hymn Notes

God of Grace and God of Glory - (Hymn of the Day)

Harry Emerson Fosdick, 1878-1969

Riverside Church in New York was built for Fosdick, one of America's foremost preachers. Non-denominational, the church was opened on October 5, 1930—a grand occasion which invited self congratulation and more than a little pride. Fosdick faced the time with hopeful enthusiasm but with humility and sometimes fearful apprehension. To mark the occasion he wrote this famous hymn at his summer home in Boothbay Harbor, Maine with it's call to face the call of Christ to be disciples, and to pray for wisdom and courage to face the hour, rather than glory in it.
